

2015 October Housing Statistics

October Home Sales Continue to Climb from 2014

Though the median sales price of single family home sales decreased slightly last month compared to October, 2014, overall price gains remain strong in 2015. The number of closed sales and homes under contract continued to outpace the previous year.

SINGLE FAMILY HOMES SOLD

Percent change reflects a year-over-year comparison between October 2014 and October 2015. Information is provided by State-Wide MLS, Inc. A six-month supply of inventory is typically considered to be an indication of a market balanced between seller supply and buyer demand.
