

JUNE 2015 HOUSING STATISTICS

RHODE ISLAND SINGLE FAMILY

Number of Single-Family Homes Sold in Rhode Island in June Highest in 16 Years

According to the Rhode Island Association of Realtors, last month was the most active month in Rhode Island single family home sales in sixteen years, surpassing even the busiest month during the pre-recession housing boom.

$236,500

↑ 2.8% MORE

SINGLE-FAMILY HOMES SOLD

1,094

↑ 16.1% MORE

Percent change reflects a year-over year comparison between June 2014 and June 2015. Information is provided by State-Wide MLS, Inc. A six-month supply of inventory is typically considered to be an indication of a market balanced between seller supply and buyer demand.

For more information: www.riliving.com/pressreleases

