SINGLE FAMILY HOMES

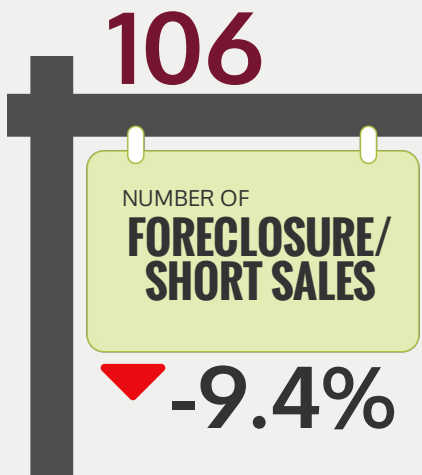

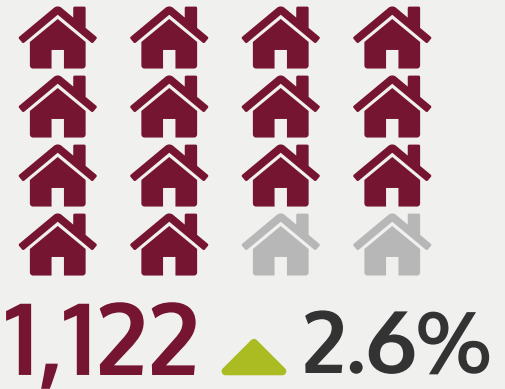

2016 June Housing Statistics

Rhode Island home sales statistics showed moderating sales activity, though sales remained above the level of 12 months earlier. Single family home sales rose 2.6 percent last month compared to June, 2015, and the median sales price rose 3.6 percent to $245,000. Both sales activity and median price had previously seen double-digit increases during most of this year.
